If you could launch your own multi-million coaching business, what would life look like for you?

A new home?

Family vacation?

Pay school fees?

Access quality healthcare?

Quit your job?

Relocate?

It's either I win, or I WIN!

HERE IS WHAT IS POSSIBLE WITHIN 12 MONTHS:

FIRST TIME YOU LAUNCH YOUR GROUP COACHING
N25,000 X 20 people = N500,000

THE SECOND TIME YOU LAUNCH
N25,000 X 25 people = N625,000

THE THIRD TIME YOU LAUNCH
N36,000 X 25 people = N900,000

TOTAL = N2,025,000

And this is a worst case scenario...

For me....

From The Inner Circle

Coach Temi had set a goal for my business and was not taking 'no' for an answer.

My initial reaction was 'is it her business, what kind of outlandish goal is this?' But in no time, I learnt that the fear of Temi's cyber eyes is the beginning of wisdom so I implemented what I had learnt and I was able to exceed this goal by 100%!

If you are running a business (not a charity) and you really want to grow and make money from it, you need to have Temi as your Coach. Believe me, you will not regret it.

After my time in the Inner Circle with Temi, one thing I got right was knowing how to set goals that work. I took time to really set my goals and achieved a lot of them. The more I set goals, the clearer it became why people don't achieve their goals.

I set a target to share with people who wanted to achieve their goals. I held a live class with 25 people turning up. That class spilled into 3 workshops and a seminar. The testimonials got those from out of town asking for me to organize workshops in their towns. In response, I asked if a webinar would achieve that purpose and hosted one. I had signups from UK and Canada and now, it is available on demand.

I've had 83 people take this class so far.

TESTIMONIAL

Adenike Sodeke Business Coach

Before I came into the Inner Circle with Temi, I was battling with procrastination. Even though I had ideas, I couldn't follow through on anyone of them.

I actually hesitated before joining because I wondered if my solutions lied there but Temi's energy online convinced me to join. I am thankful I joined the Inner Circle because there, I became fired up and relentless in following through on my goals one of which is to become an author.

Temi's bumper to bumper follow up killed all forms of procrastination in my life. It couldn't stand Temi's electric current.

I recommend this programme for anyone who desires clarity in monetizing their passions and expertise and also business women who are finding it difficult to scale up their business from start up stage.

Dear Coach Temi,

Joining the Inner Circle Program helped me to set goals that kept me pumped and ready to rule my world. I got confident enough to hold my live event and sponsor charity programs for undergraduates.

By implementing what I learnt on the program, I was able to build a proper business structure, set business goals and smash them consistently.

I got branding clients, held several online training, set up my online community, built an email list and most importantly, was able to afford high-end personal development programs like NLP without feeling somehow.

It's either I win, or I WIN!

YOU HAVE 3 OPTIONS GOING FORWARD

Do nothing and forget you saw this and move on.

Leaving behind your plans and your goals, believing you still have time and losing money in the process.

Get down to doing it, experimenting on your own.

Because you think coaching is over-rated or that you cannot afford it yet so you waste more money and time trying to figure things out.

Get the proven system and support that works!

From someone who has done it, gotten results, helped others and willing to show you how to do it step-by-step.

- Do you want to keep seeing others live your life while you wish you could also create impact, influence and income doing what you love by launching your own personal brand?
- Do you want to spend the next 3 - 5 years trying to figure it out on your own, launching out on a trial and error basis and hoping you will eventually find what works?

Dear Coach Temi,

When I joined your coaching, one of my goals for Foshizi Tours was to improve our visibility in all phases of the company.

I'm glad to inform you that we have taken the step to move Foshizi to global view by opening our Rwanda office.

Thanks to your coaching and the clarity it has produced in making me focused on the essential and leave out the noises that never really mattered in the scheme of becoming who God has designed me to be.

I am super proud to be associated with you and your brand. I am always grateful to you for the push to write my book too. my heart blesses you plenty. Your stage is set and your footprints in the sand of time will shock you yourself.
